Confirmation of the Resurrection

John 19.31-37

1. How many people have to tell you something for you to believe it is true?
2. What if you had eyewitness accounts of what occurred, would you believe it then?
3. Did you know that there were many witnesses of Jesus' resurrection, both friend and foe?

I. Ones Who Put _____ In The _____ (John 19.38).

- A. Who asked Pilate for the body of Jesus after He had died on the cross?
- B. Who was Joseph of Arimathea?
 1. Pilate granted Joseph's request, and the body of Jesus was taken down off the cross and given to him.

- C. Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus were both _____ of Jesus. Why?

 1. The scriptures teach we "re-enact" the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus when we are _____ into Christ Jesus.
 2. Every first day of the week, we memorialize the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus as we partake of the _____.

III. _____ Who Guarded The Tomb.

- A. Why were the Roman soldiers even there?
 1. The _____ insisted on the sepulcher of Jesus being placed under guard (Matthew 27.62-66).
 2. No one questions that Jesus' body was in the tomb.
- B. The soldiers witnessed the seal of the tomb being _____ and the stone being _____ (Matthew 28.1-4, 11-15).

IV. _____ At The Tomb.

- A. How many angels appeared (Matthew 28.2-7)?
- B. In sending the angels, God sent _____ from heaven that Jesus arose.

V. _____ Who Saw The Risen Lord Outside The Tomb.

- A. Jesus first appeared to _____ (John 20.11-18).
 1. Why did Jesus say to Mary, "Do not cling to Me"?
 2. Matthew's account tells us Jesus then appeared to the other women who saw the empty tomb as they were going to tell others He had risen (Matthew 28.9, 10).
- B. Who else _____ the resurrected Lord (I Corinthians 15.5-8)?

Conclusion: Are you ready to come to Jesus today?

CONNECTION

C Jennifer Scott and her mother, Debbie Rollins, are very instrumental in facilitating the Ladies' Night Fellowship and Bible Study at Western Hills. Every other month, they plan and prepare a night just for the women of our congregation. These nights are a small time commitment from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM and the rewards are endless.

R
R When women spend time together, we develop bonds with our sisters. These relationships provide a much needed community wherein we are able to share the trials and struggles of our time on earth as well as celebrate the joys and triumphs. A diversity of ages allows for the sharing of experiences in an atmosphere of love, understanding, and acceptance. As women navigate the various roles in which God has placed us, it is encouraging to learn from those who have been through the same, or, are going through similar circumstances. When we begin to communicate with one another, we learn and grow from the time shared.

The focus of the Ladies' Night Fellowships changes with each meeting. Some nights are dedicated to prayer. One night, stations were set up and the ladies would sit and pray for specific needs and individuals. We then made our own prayer boxes which provided a convenient space for prayer requests. You may have noticed the prayer wall in the middle foyer. Anyone can place a ribbon on the frame and know that there are women here praying for that person and situation. Details are not needed; our great God hears and answers each prayer. We have worked on ways to improve our relationship with God. As we learn various ways in which to study our bibles, we are encouraged to delve deeper into God's word and glean much more than we may have previously. We have completed service projects to bless others and made Christmas ornaments to keep and others to share. Next week, we will be concentrating on renewing ourselves so that we may care for our loved ones in a healthier fashion. God has shown us through the examples of Moses, Elijah, and Jesus, Himself, that everyone is in need of times of refreshing.

When women come together, there is always a good meal. We have had nights in which we brought "potluck" and other nights where the group has been generously treated by Jennifer and Debbie. One thing is certain, no one will ever leave hungry! As you can see, there is something for everyone. You will find yourself encouraged, uplifted, and rejuvenated if you are able to attend these gatherings.

Please join our group of women on Thursday, April 24, at 6:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall for an evening of much needed pampering. It is requested that you bring a soup or salad for the dinner and the spiritual nourishment will be provided.
