

“Lord, What Do You Want Me To Do?”

When Jesus appeared to Saul of Tarsus on the road to Damascus, after He identified Himself to Saul, Saul said, “Lord, what do you want me to do?” (Acts 9.6, NKJV). After Saul finally realized that Jesus, whom he so violently persecuted, truly was the Messiah as the Christians proclaimed, he humbly submitted to the Lord’s will. As Christians, we strive to follow daily this same Jesus to whom Saul became subservient. It is our goal to love Him and keep His commandments (John 14.15). What great peace and joy we have in our hearts when we trust Him knowing, regardless of what happens, He is always with us (Hebrews 13.5).

Looking at the way you live, would you say that you truly realize who Jesus is? Jesus is the One who spoke the universe into existence (Colossians 1.16). Do you comprehend His omnipotence? Our Lord, the One who overcame death, is the One we serve. Do we serve Jesus in full recognition of His power? His power to save? His power to carry us through “when we meet trials of various kinds” (James 1.2)? When Saul of Tarsus saw Jesus, he immediately fell to the ground (Acts 9.4). He saw the glory of Jesus and instantly fell to the ground before Him. Do we realize that when Jesus appeared to people in His glorified state that the immediate effect He had upon them was they fell before Him? Do you remember John’s reaction in the book of Revelation (Revelation 1.17)? We serve this same Jesus that is so glorious that men cannot stand in His presence. Thus, do we “fall before Him” as we humble ourselves in the way we think and act every day? What does Jesus want us to do?

CONNECTION

C Good Morning church family! Today's Connection Corner featured member is Misty Martinez.

N
E
R Misty was born in and lived in San Antonio, Tx for the first 22 years of her life. She was home schooled for her early education, although like many home school programs, participated in a co-op home school, graduating from Blessed Hope High School. During her early years in school, Misty learned to play the cello, and learned Folklorico dancing. This is the incredibly colorful, ceremonial dances performed by many of the various cultures in Mexico, dating as far back as the early 1800's. If you google it, you may see some very beautiful and colorful celebrations. Upon graduation, Misty said her dad signed her up in a Medical technical school, but ultimately she received her Bachelor's degree in Social Work from University of Phoenix.

While in the Med Tech School, Misty was introduced to a boy named David by a friend. Misty says David asked for her phone number, but she said "No." She relented later and went out on a first date to Taco Cabana because "we were both poor students with no money at the time." One year later, they were married and moved to Ft Worth. David was in the US Coast Guard as a science technician. Misty started working for Foster Care's redesign program in the IT department as a Quality Programmer and has remained there for several years.

Misty and David have been blessed with 3 children, and besides the usual ferrying and chasing of kids, they really enjoy family time- hiking, walking through antique stores and going to classic car shows, etc. She enjoys her small vegetable garden, growing jalapenos & tomatoes. The family enjoys cooking together at meal time as well. Misty and her children have greatly helped our food pantry at WH, assisting in filling the grocery bags for the needy. Reach out and get to know Misty; by doing so I know you will both be blessed!!
